

THE PUBLIC LEDGER

FOURTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1895.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "advertisers" any more than a merchant can afford to give his customer free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter to what extent the paper may appear.

The Continued One

Upon this Ledger for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Meetings, excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, resolutions of respect, etc. This Ledger will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter it will be the invariable rule. This, however.

Does Not Include

notice of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rule for Business Ledgers in this Ledger is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a headline local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the publisher. "But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—his bill is $18.50. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, so "the former notice will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around."

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Railroad Commissioner Fay's came home yesterday.

Mr. M. S. Dimmitt of Covington was in the city yesterday.

Miss Little Landon has returned from an extended visit to Bellevue.

Mr. W. W. Wilson, the C. and O. Agent, has returned from the South.

Professor W. R. Chandler of Maysick was visiting in this city yesterday.

Mr. N. C. Powell came up yesterday from Ashton on a visit to relatives.

Miss Newmyer will leave today for Cincinnati, after two weeks' visit to Miss Pickett.

Colonel W. L. L. Thomas will in a few days leave for St. Louis to remain several weeks.

Mr. William Pepper left yesterday afternoon on a business trip through Eastern Kentucky and West Virginia.

Miss Little Bruce will leave this afternoon for her home at Paris, after a pleasant visit to friends in this city.

Professor J. H. Rowland, Superintendent of Public Schools at Middletown, O., was in the city Saturday, and was gladly welcomed by scores of friends.

The formal announcement of the approaching marriage of Mr. Martin A. O'Hare and Miss Mary G. O'Donnell was made at St. Patrick's Church yesterday. Mr. O'Hare is of the Mitchell & O'Hare Hardware Company, and one of the brightest young business men of this city. Miss O'Donnell is a beautiful and highly accomplished young lady, a sister of Attorney Frank P. O'Donnell. The announcement was a surprise to even the most intimate friends of the parties.

Money to Loan.

$40,000 to loan on first mortgage on city or country real estate, in sums of not less than $300. Time, two years or longer. Interest, 6 per cent., payable semi-annually.

MICHAEL JOHNSON, Attorney, Court street, Maysville, Ky.

8100—Rescued—8100.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in its infancy, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and enabling nature to do its work. The proprietor has so much faith in its curative powers that he offers One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: J. C. Chamberlain & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by druggists, 75 cents.

WHAT 'D' YOU SPOKE?

What twirled the town on her bike, Staring people flat in the face, Chewing gum and the like, What 'd' you 'pose 'd' do? What 'd' you 'pose 'd' do? What 'd' you 'pose 'd' do? But never cream and cake, But never spent an idle thought On me, for play's sake, What 'd' you 'pose 'd' do? If her father's bank account were large In Oshkosh or Kalamazoo, And he'd let me freely say it, What 'd' you 'pose 'd' do?

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-Four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

While stronger—fair.

Blue—rain or snow.

With black above—will warm soon.

If black's beneath—colder!—will be colder.

Unless black's shown—no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 9 o'clock to-morrow evening.

We respectfully invite the comparison of this Ledger with any other daily newspaper in all Northeastern Kentucky.

If any one can find a daily paper printed in the Ninth Congressional District that has

A Larger Circulation, or More Original Reading Matter,

we will take pleasure in presenting him with a year's subscription to this Ledger. And this paper is furnished at name price at interior rates.

The big fox hunt to occur in Bath county has been postponed until December 3d.

Lieut. Lucien Young denies that his book on Hawaii has been ordered suppressed by President Cleveland.

LOST HIS VOTE.

And Wesley Mines Has Now Taken to His Bed.

The Cincinnati Post's Vanechburg correspondent has turned himself loose again with the following "special" from that place:

"On election day Wesley Mines, a Republican at Kinney Precinct, lost his vote by placing the mark under the Prohibition device, thinking it was the eagle, not knowing that the Republican device had been changed to a log cabin."

"When he discovered his mistake after depositing his ballot he pleaded frantically to have the ballot back."

"When informed that this was impossible he began weeping hysterically. He went home and took to his bed, where he has laid moaning ever since. He refuses nourishment and it is thought that his mind is permanently impaired. His health has been very bad for a long time."

EARLY MORNING FIRE.

A Bad Blaze in a Very Bad Place, and the Damage Sustained.

At half past 6 this morning fire was discovered in the third floor of Klipp & Biggers's saddlery and harness factory, No. 3 West Second street.

It broke out in a pile of straw stored in a small room through which ran a brick flue, but this flue had not been used for several years.

The flames were confined to the third floor and roof of the building in which they originated, and the damage to the building from this source will not reach more than $500.

Water did most damage, and the stock of Messrs. Klipp & Biggers suffered to the extent of probably $3,000, on which there was insurance of $2,000.

P. J. Murphy the Jeweller, who occupied the West half of the building, was badly damaged by water, but even an approximate estimate of loss cannot yet be made.

Mr. Murphy has $3,000 insurance, which will probably cover his entire loss. The large drugstore of Dr. J. James Wood on the East was slightly damaged by water.

Smith & Co., the cigar manufacturers who adjoin Mr. Murphy on the West, have considerable water in their cellar, beyond which they escaped injury.

The building belongs to Mr. Charles H. White, and it is fully covered by insurance.

The personality of the late George W. Hughes, who was killed at Springfield on the 18th of October, has been appraised at $487.

Mr. William T. Berry, Principal of the Third District Public School, on Saturday entertained a number of his fellow-teachers at dinner.

Wanted—An intelligent American girl, 14 to 16 years, to learn light trade. Address, in own handwriting, "M., PEARCE," Ledger office.

I am receiving choice Northern potatoes in car lots. Persons wishing to lay in for winter will do well to call on me. Prices very low. K. B. LOVELL.

Watson Andrews, John Mills, J. W. Dudley, E. H. Kenner, T. M. Fleming and Samuel Plank are the new city fathers of Flemingsburg.

The City Council will meet a week from next Thursday night to consider the ordinance on all licenses. It is thought the proposition to place saloon license at $500 will fail. Under the statute law it cannot be reduced to less than $250. It is $300 now.

Ex Chief Justice B. J. Peters celebrated his 90th birthday at Mr. Stirling on Sunday, November 8d.

The earnings of the C. and O. for the third week in October of this year were $318,511, same period last year $280,108, an increase of $24,383.

There were 260 business failures throughout the United States during the past seven days as compared with 299 the corresponding week last year.

A list of all the Postoffice in the Postal Union has been received at the Cincinnati Postoffice. The number is 204,345, and a letter can be sent to any of them for a sum not to exceed 5 cents, and to any one of the 70,000 offices in the United States for 2 cents.

Saturday morning about 9 o'clock, as the Poplar Flat 'bus was coming to this city, and when a little ways West of the streetcar barn, one of the rear wheels flew off, causing the bus to stop, breaking all the glass on the side and considerably shaking up the driver. After some delay the wheel was replaced and the vehicle came to town and had the damage repaired.

Beginning November 21st and ending November 27th—one entire week—the Fourth Page of THE LEDGER will be made especially attractive for Advertisers. A novel design has been prepared—something entirely new and "catchy"—and a limited number of cards will be inserted at a very low rate. Our canvasser will call on the representative houses during the week to solicit their favors.

Harry Walsh is now with John Wheeler the confectioner and fruiterer, and Harry is a polite, energetic young man.

The meeting of the Directors of the Maysville Cemetery Co. is postponed to Tuesday afternoon, November 12th.

Chenoweth's Headache Cure cures headache, 10 and 35 cents per package. Which hurts worst—headache or 25 cents?

Whiskers that are prominently arched should be colored to prevent the loss of age, and Buckingham's Eye ointment is others in coloring brown or black.

The examining trial of Nick Fletcher and Miss Pearl Crouch, charged with being accessories to the murder of Doc Ellington, which was set for Thursday at Paris, has been postponed until Monday on account of the illness of one of the commonwealth witnesses.

He Is Released, However, and Sentence Deferred Till February.

Charles Chilton Moore, Editor of The Bluegrass Blade of Lexington, was tried in the United States District Court at Louisville on an indictment charging him in thirteen counts with the use of the mails for circulating obscene, lewd and lascivious literature.

The literature complained of consisted of Anne Besant's "Law of Population," which was accused circulated as a premium for his paper and also sold.

The trial attracted a large crowd, but those who expected a sensational trial were disappointed, for the proceedings were very commonplace.

The District Attorney contented himself with introducing the evidence of several persons who had received the book from Moore through the mails, and in order to prove that the book was obscene he read a short extract from it.

Moore was not represented by counsel, and asked none of the witnesses against him any questions. He offered no evidence in his own behalf, and when asked whether he had any argument to make to the Jury he spoke for fifteen minutes. He admitted having sent the book through the mails, but contended that it was not obscene, within the meaning of that in the statutes.

"I have never been accused of being an immoral man, and it was not my purpose to be a party to any immorality," said he. He also claimed that he did not know of the existence of the statute under which he had been indicted, as that law had been changed in 1888, and the old law, which he had consulted, had not been the same as the present one. He pleaded for his release on the ground that he was not knowingly guilty.

Moore was released on $1,000 bond, and sentence deferred till February on condition to not repeat his offense.

The wife of Mr. Leonard Wells of East Brimfield, Mass., had been suffering from neuritis for two days, not being able to sleep or hardly keep still, when Mr. Holden, the merchant there, sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and asked that she give it a thorough trial. On meeting Mr. Wells the next day he was told that she was all right, the pain had left her within two hours, and that the bottle of Pain Balm was worth as it could not be had for less. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by J. James Wood, Druggist.

THE COMMITTEE FROM THE BOURBON COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT says the Mason County Infirmary is the best one they have yet visited, and the best kept.

CHARLIE MOORE GUILTY.

He Is Released, However, and Sentence Deferred Till February.

Charles Chilton Moore, Editor of The Bluegrass Blade of Lexington, was tried in the United States District Court at Louisville on an indictment charging him in thirteen counts with the use of the mails for circulating obscene, lewd and lascivious literature.

The literature complained of consisted of Anne Besant's "Law of Population," which was accused circulated as a premium for his paper and also sold.

The trial attracted a large crowd, but those who expected a sensational trial were disappointed, for the proceedings were very commonplace.

The District Attorney contented himself with introducing the evidence of several persons who had received the book from Moore through the mails, and in order to prove that the book was obscene he read a short extract from it.

Moore was not represented by counsel, and asked none of the witnesses against him any questions. He offered no evidence in his own behalf, and when asked whether he had any argument to make to the Jury he spoke for fifteen minutes. He admitted having sent the book through the mails, but contended that it was not obscene, within the meaning of that in the statutes.

"I have never been accused of being an immoral man, and it was not my purpose to be a party to any immorality," said he. He also claimed that he did not know of the existence of the statute under which he had been indicted, as that law had been changed in 1888, and the old law, which he had consulted, had not been the same as the present one. He pleaded for his release on the ground that he was not knowingly guilty.

Moore was released on $1,000 bond, and sentence deferred till February on condition to not repeat his offense.

The wife of Mr. Leonard Wells of East Brimfield, Mass., had been suffering from neuritis for two days, not being able to sleep or hardly keep still, when Mr. Holden, the merchant there, sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and asked that she give it a thorough trial. On meeting Mr. Wells the next day he was told that she was all right, the pain had left her within two hours, and that the bottle of Pain Balm was worth as it could not be had for less. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by J. James Wood, Druggist.

THE COMMITTEE FROM THE BOURBON COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT says the Mason County Infirmary is the best one they have yet visited, and the best kept.

CHARLIE MOORE GUILTY.

He Is Released, However, and Sentence Deferred Till February.

Charles Chilton Moore, Editor of The Bluegrass Blade of Lexington, was tried in the United States District Court at Louisville on an indictment charging him in thirteen counts with the use of the mails for circulating obscene, lewd and lascivious literature.

The literature complained of consisted of Anne Besant's "Law of Population," which was accused circulated as a premium for his paper and also sold.

The trial attracted a large crowd, but those who expected a sensational trial were disappointed, for the proceedings were very commonplace.

The District Attorney contented himself with introducing the evidence of several persons who had received the book from Moore through the mails, and in order to prove that the book was obscene he read a short extract from it.

Moore was not represented by counsel, and asked none of the witnesses against him any questions. He offered no evidence in his own behalf, and when asked whether he had any argument to make to the Jury he spoke for fifteen minutes. He admitted having sent the book through the mails, but contended that it was not obscene, within the meaning of that in the statutes.

"I have never been accused of being an immoral man, and it was not my purpose to be a party to any immorality," said he. He also claimed that he did not know of the existence of the statute under which he had been indicted, as that law had been changed in 1888, and the old law, which he had consulted, had not been the same as the present one. He pleaded for his release on the ground that he was not knowingly guilty.

Moore was released on $1,000 bond, and sentence deferred till February on condition to not repeat his offense.

The wife of Mr. Leonard Wells of East Brimfield, Mass., had been suffering from neuritis for two days, not being able to sleep or hardly keep still, when Mr. Holden, the merchant there, sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and asked that she give it a thorough trial. On meeting Mr. Wells the next day he was told that she was all right, the pain had left her within two hours, and that the bottle of Pain Balm was worth as it could not be had for less. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by J. James Wood, Druggist.

THE COMMITTEE FROM THE BOURBON COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT says the Mason County Infirmary is the best one they have yet visited, and the best kept.

CHARLIE MOORE GUILTY.

He Is Released, However, and Sentence Deferred Till February.

Charles Chilton Moore, Editor of The Bluegrass Blade of Lexington, was tried in the United States District Court at Louisville on an indictment charging him in thirteen counts with the use of the mails for circulating obscene, lewd and lascivious literature.

The literature complained of consisted of Anne Besant's "Law of Population," which was accused circulated as a premium for his paper and also sold.

The trial attracted a large crowd, but those who expected a sensational trial were disappointed, for the proceedings were very commonplace.

The District Attorney contented himself with introducing the evidence of several persons who had received the book from Moore through the mails, and in order to prove that the book was obscene he read a short extract from it.

Work in Royal Purple tonight at Fish Campground, N. E. L. O. O. F.

Good advice—Never leave home on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

Masonic Notice.

Mason Lodge No. 342, F. and A. M., will meet in special communication this evening at 7 o'clock. Work in Third Degree. All Master Masons in good standing are invited to be present.

JOHN W. BOULDEN, W. M. R. P. Jenkins, Secretary.

Building Association Receipts.

The receipts of the several Building Associations of this city Saturday night were as follows:

Mason County	$ 475 10
People's	527 00
Total	$1,002 10

THE ASHLAND WAY.

The Chief of Police-Elect May Not Get the Office.

In spite of the opinion of such able lawyers as Hon. John F. Hager, there was a candidate for Chief of Police at the recent election in Ashland.

The candidate was George Worthington, Republican, and he got 674 votes, having no opposition.

And now the Election Board has been enjoined from counting and reporting Worthington's vote.

Chief Vere, elected two years ago, claims to have been elected for four years, and will contest the election on these grounds, despite the fact that Attorney General Hendrick gave an opinion favoring the election.

HE'D BEEN THERE!

But He Was Quite Willing to Be Tried Again.

Up in Montana they have a secret order known as the "Ancient and Independent Order of Stay-With-Em's." Here is a part of the ritual:

"From whence come you?"

"From my lodging place in the county of holy Missions."

"Then you are a Populist, I suppose?"

"I'm a Pop, you bet."

"How do you know yourself to be a Populist?"

"By having been called a calamity howler, and I'm proud to howl again."

"Where were you first prepared to be made a Pop?"

"In the Democratic party."

"Where next?"

"In the Populist-Democratic party."

"How were you prepared?"

"By being robbed every year for ten years in the interest of railroads, corporations, trusts, loan companies and thieving public officials, until I was divested of all material substance, neither clothed nor fed, sheltered nor shod, whereupon I was compelled to appear at the door of a certain lawyer's office and give a dictation knock."

"What was said to you from within?"

"Who comes here?"

"Had you cash?"

"I had not, but the other fellows had my notes and were ready to foreclose."

"What were you then told?"

"To wait until the worshipful mortgagee in the East could be informed of my request and his answer returned."

"What was his answer?"

"Let him enter his pleadings in court and be received in due and ancient form."

"How were you received?"

"Upon the sharp point of a deficiency judgment to everything in sight, which was to teach me that as the law is an instrument of justice, it was also the weapon of moral bankruptcy."

"How were you then disposed of?"

"I was then conducted to the senior warden of the jail, who told me how I might approach my wife's relatives in the East for further assistance, and then received further instructions."

How many young men and young women are cut off just as the future seems brightest and fullest of promise? They are taken away by the disease which causes over one-sixth of all the deaths in the world—the disease which doctors call consumption. There is absolutely no reason in the world why consumption should be fatal—why it should be even serious. It is a disease of the blood, and can be cured absolutely and always by purifying and enriching the blood. The only exception to this is the case where the disease has been neglected and improperly treated until it is stronger than the body—until the body has become so weak that it has lost the ability to recover. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure 98 per cent. of all cases of this disease, and a thorough course of treatment also cures all lingering coughs, bronchitis and throat affections.

Send $1.00 in one of our stamps to World's Dispensary, Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1000 page Common Sense Medical Adviser, illustrated.

Some Young Men—How to Guard Against the Disease.

Group is a terror to young mothers, and to most them the cause of the same symptoms and treatment is the object of this item. The origin of group is a common cold. Children who are taken with group, very early and group is almost sure to follow. The first symptom is hoarseness; this is followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given all tendency to group will soon disappear. Even after the group cough has developed it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in giving this remedy, for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

—COMING!—

Monday, Nov. 11.

The great and only

JAMES A. REILLY,

The greatest living German present day.

FOR THREE DAYS ONLY

MONDAY NIGHT,

"THE MONDAY SOLDIER."

TUESDAY NIGHT,

"THE BROOM MAKER."

WEDNESDAY NIGHT,

"OUR MARRIED MEN."

And don't forget we have a continuous show. No waits, no overtures. Our prices are 10c., 20c., 30c.

Frank Owens Hardware Co.

Our Stock is the Largest and Most Complete Ever Shown in Our City.

Work in Royal Purple tonight at Fish Campground, N. E. L. O. O. F.

Good advice—Never leave home on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

Masonic Notice.

Mason Lodge No. 342, F. and A. M., will meet in special communication this evening at 7 o'clock. Work in Third Degree. All Master Masons in good standing are invited to be present.

JOHN W. BOULDEN, W. M. R. P. Jenkins, Secretary.

Building Association Receipts.

The receipts of the several Building Associations of this city Saturday night were as follows:

Mason County	$ 475 10
People's	527 00
Total	$1,002 10

THE ASHLAND WAY.

The Chief of Police-Elect May Not Get the Office.

In spite of the opinion of such able lawyers as Hon. John F. Hager, there was a candidate for Chief of Police at the recent election in Ashland.

The candidate was George Worthington, Republican, and he got 674 votes, having no opposition.

And now the Election Board has been enjoined from counting and reporting Worthington's vote.

Chief

NOW'S TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.

